As a first step, we will investigate potential reasons for differential performance of transfer students -- e.g., types of programs, specific institutions, etc.

Based on findings, we will make adjustments to curriculum/support/etc for transfer students

Based on results from previous assessment, it was noted that students were not as strong on the qualitative aspects of data collection and analysis as on the quantitative, as applied to the needs assessment. We planned to review relevant courses and make instructional or curricular changes as needed.

Implementation

Description of actual activities implemented. (These may differ from the intended plan based on new information or circumstances.)

Discuss successes and/or challenges with implementation. Attach supplemental information, if available.

We were able to drilldown on the results and noted that students did well in the actual qualitative methods coursework. However, based on focus groups of students, it was also noted that many took the course early in their program and may not have practiced these skills recently. Thus, we infused more relevant opportunities in some of our 3000-level course assignments. We will review results for this year's assessment in this context.

5. Click done when completed to exit out of the item.
6. Now that the appropriate context has been provided for previous assessment, in the Plan Items list, select the actual SLO Item (in this case, SLO #1) and complete the following items (see sample below):
 - (a) Select “Yes” in the Is this outcome being assessed this year dropdown menu.
 - (b) Complete the Measure/Method of Assessment textbox.
 - (c) Complete the Target/Criteria textbox.
