

What Works Conference: Getting to Know Our Students' Stories

To learn about and amplify what works for student success.

Sponsored by Academic Affairs, Enrollment Management, and Student Development

To learn more about the conference: Conference Details

Call for session proposals (due Nov. 18): (Closed)

Call for discussion pics due December 8: Discussion Pics

Conference schedule link: Schedule

Conference REGISTRATION LINK: Registration

Goals and Features of this conference? This is an opportunity to gather to learn about evidence-based practices used here at WP that benefit students. We are looking for sessions that answer the question: What works? There will be concurrent panels, a plenary speaker, and informal roundtable discussions.

When is it? Monday, December 13, 9 a.m.-4 p.m. Online. (A link will be shared closer to the date). All sessions are online via Zoom.

Questions? Email: AndrewB@wpunj.edu

Conference Committee:

Barbara Andrew, Chair
Elizabeth Brown, Co-Director, CTE
David Fuentes, Co-Director, CTE
Sandra Hill, Associate Provost
Eileen Lubeck, Dean of Students
Linda Refsland, Executive Director, Academic Success Services

Keynote Speaker

Sonia Nieto is Professor Emerita of Language, Literacy, and Culture Emeritus at the School of Education, University of Massachusetts, Amherst. A leader in the field of multiculturalism, her work seeks to shed light on common institutional policies and practices (racism, inequality, discrimination, and other forms of exclusion) that impact learning and to aid teachers to effectively confront them. For more information on Dr. Nieto, click here.